DEVELOPING A RESEARCH PLAN

Before you start gathering details,
make a research plan to guide you.

A plan will help you to stay focused and use your time wisely.

Use the following guiding question to develop your research plan .

What are the lasting influences of your revolution on society.

Use this question—and the who, what, when, where, why, and how questions—as you begin to do your actual research.

I want to find out who . . .

I want to discover what . . .

I want to learn when . . .

I want to know where . . .

I want to understand why and how . . .

Plan to use a wide variety of sources,
such as:

- Library sources
- Internet sites
- Media sources
